

CONCORD.

Miss Fanny Olcott of Milford, Mass., spent a part of last week with her sister, Mrs. Abiah Cheney.

Ellsworth Williams of Gilead, Me., is spending some time with his family here. Francis Lillie had his arm dislocated Thursday while at play with an older brother. It was immediately put into place, and is now doing well.

Miss Helen Bailey of Hartford is visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Cobligh.

Mrs. Guy Howard and son Mason of South Barre, who have spent the past few weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Quimby, returned to their home Saturday.

Miss Adelaide McKelvey of Whitefield, N. H., was a guest of Miss Mamie Harvey last week.

Miss Nettie Morton, who has spent the past few months at St. Johnsbury, is now stopping with her sister, Mrs. George Quimby.

Miss Emma Whitney has returned from Lyndonville and vicinity where she has spent the past few months.

Miss Nadine Richardson is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Abbie Fletcher, in Burlington for several weeks.

Miss Mamie Harvey is in St. Johnsbury working in the family of Loren Hastings.

Miss Vera Boyd and aunt of Boston are guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Houston.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Smith spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Selden Smith at Lunenburg.

Mrs. Clarence McKelvey and daughter of East Concord are visiting her mother, Mrs. Ellen Gilbert.

Dr. G. B. French, Harold French, Willard Brewer and Henry Gero were at Victory the last of the week fishing.

Miss Hazel Dudley is spending the summer with her aunt, Mrs. Julia Underwood, at Cohasset, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Scott and daughter Eugenia of St. Johnsbury spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Newton.

George Parker of Royalston, Conn., was the guest of Charles Howard the first of the week.

Mrs. Henry Pease entertained her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Lawrence of Waterford, over Sunday.

Mrs. L. M. Moody is selling her stock of summer hats at cost.

Mr. and Mrs. William Weir are packing their furniture preparatory to storing it.

The friends of Mrs. Maude Brigham Young of Wayland, Mass., will be interested to hear of the arrival of a son in her family last week.

Ira Noyes, who sustained a bad fall several weeks ago, is able to walk about a very little.

George Wright, William Wright and Dr. Wright were guests at Andrew Lyon's and Mrs. Hannah Whitney's last week.

Miss Katherine Pike visited her sister, Mrs. Olin Adams, at St. Johnsbury recently.

Miss May Gilfillan of East Barnet has been spending a few days with her cousins, Miss Eva Batchelder and Mrs. Francis Chapman.

George Felch of St. Johnsbury was in town last week tuning pianos.

Miss Mabel Boutwell is working for her uncle, David Frye.

Mrs. Ed. Hudson was very ill the past week, but is improving now quite rapidly.

Mr. and Mrs. Daya Hunt are here on their wedding trip, visiting their mother, Mrs. Nancy Hunt.

Mrs. Hazel Douglas spent Sunday with her aunt, Mrs. David Fales, at St. Johnsbury.

Mrs. Aaron Tilton is entertaining her sister, Miss Maggie Stuart.

Dan Grout has gone to Littleton, N. H., to work for the season.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Forsaith entertained Mr. and Mrs. Frank Forsaith of St. Johnsbury several days last week.

Miss Katy Williams spent Sunday with Miss May Underwood at St. Johnsbury.

Mrs. Lucretia Smith of St. Johnsbury is spending a few weeks with her niece, Mrs. Carrie Boutwell. Mr. and Mrs. James Frye of St. Johnsbury were there over Sunday.

Harry Currier, who was quite ill last week, is much better. Harvey Judvine remains about the same.

There have been 25 New England telephones put in the homes of the farmers in the Hemmingway neighborhood that will be connected with this central office.

Mrs. Archie Bowman and children, Shirley and Douglas, are visiting friends in Canada for a month.

Mrs. Abby Gray and children spent the past week with Mrs. Bert Gray at Damon's Crossing.

John Guyer and a force of men from St. Johnsbury are putting in the foundation for the new town hall.

Albert Frye spent the past three weeks with his son, Solon Frye, at Littleton, and his brother, David Frye, on the old home place.

W. R. Joslin has finished the painting

My Hair is Extra Long

Feed your hair; nourish it; give it something to live on. Then it will stop falling, and will grow long and heavy. Ayer's Hair Vigor is the only hair-food you can buy. For 60 years it has been doing just what we claim it will do. It will not disappoint you.

"My hair used to be very short. But after using Ayer's Hair Vigor a short time it began to grow, and now it is fourteen inches long. This seems a splendid result to me after being bald almost without any hair."—Mrs. J. H. PIERCE, Colorado Springs, Colo.

Made by J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass. Also manufactured by SARGENT & WELCH, PILLS, CHERRY PECTORAL.

of the front of the Universalist church and the new windows have been put in place, so that the exterior of the church is as it was before the fire. In the interior the auditorium is a network of staging, ready for the metal ceiling which is expected to arrive this week.

Alvah Belden has been suffering from rheumatism the past week.

Mrs. Mary Meehan left Monday for Boston, where she will visit her daughter Fanny and other children.

The Universalist Sunday school held a food sale and supper at the vestry last Saturday, which was well patronized. A short program of music and tableaux was given in the evening.

Mrs. A. B. Enright and daughter Lillian, who have spent the past few weeks with Mr. Enright's sister, Mrs. F. O. Sinclair, in Burlington, returned home last week.

C. E. Dudley spent the past week in Boston and Connecticut.

For Over Sixty Years

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used by millions of mothers for their children while teething. It disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth, send at once and get a bottle of "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup" for Children Teething. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers, there is no mistake about it. It cures Diarrhea, regulates the Stomach and Bowels, cures Wind Colic, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup" for children teething is pleasant to the taste and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States. Price 25 cents a bottle. Sold by all druggists throughout the world. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup."

SUTTON.

H. F. Pillsbury has sold and deeded all of his real estate in this town including the steam mill and some five thousand acres or more of land in the north part of the town. The purchaser is Alston M. Redman of Lexington, Mass. We understand it is bought for a syndicate and is to take the name of "The Willoughby Wood Lumber Co." Mr. Pillsbury has also sold his real estate in town of Westmore, several hundred acres and steam mill, to the same person, the Westmore mill and land being on the west side of Willoughby lake.

Irvin W. Blake has sold his farm to Dwight C. Cheney, about one hundred and forty acres of land, price $700. Mr. Cheney has possession of the place at once. Mr. Blake expects to remain in the house a few weeks or until he finds another place.

Elmore Whipple and wife are in town from Franconia, stopping among friends. Mr. Whipple is cutting the hay on the farm that he bought of George Willard, having several men to help him put the hay into the barn.

Mrs. Corilla Campbell of Lebanon, N. H., has been visiting friends in town the past week. She has two brothers here, Corydon and Lewis Parker, and other relatives.

Mrs. Reece has sold her farm near the Sheffield line to John Walman from Canada; price $1000, possession at once.

Mrs. O. E. Harris is camping at Willoughby lake.

Charles Whipple has a lady at his place teaching his younger son, who is unfortunately deaf and dumb.

Dr. Griffith and Miss Hinton from Providence, R. I., are taking their summer vacation, stopping at Dr. Burke's.

Clark Kibbey of Concord, N. H., has been visiting friends in town the past week.

Eber Watson met with an accident while at work in a meat market at Barton, hurting his hand so as to lay him by, so far as work is concerned, for a time.

Miss Bessie Allard of Barton, a former resident of the village, is visiting friends in town.

The town library, which has been closed for a few weeks for renumbering the books, was reopened Saturday and all can have books now.

Herbert Burnham is at the Fabian House, N. H., where he has a position as bell boy for the summer.

C. W. Willard has let his hay to be put into his barn at the halves; a very good chance for those doing it, as the grass is very stout and nearly all of it can be cut by the machine and raked by the horse.

PEACHAM.

There was a pleasant social gathering at Mrs. F. H. Varnum's, Wednesday, the 19th, in honor of L. R. Varnum's 67th birthday. The table was set outdoors and surrounded by a mid-summer crowd, each of whom was expected to respond to a toast, all winning their guest many happy returns.

There was another party at Mrs. Lizzie Rowe's in Danville, when Guy Rowe entertained quite a company of his schoolmates and friends from this town, who spent a very pleasant evening.

Mrs. Margaret Mackey and her two children of St. Johnsbury spent last week at Dea. Harvey's.

All will be glad to learn that Elmer Wheeler, who was thrown from a load of hay about two weeks ago, is rapidly recovering.

Miss Annie Williams, who has been teaching at Springfield the past year, is at home for the summer.

Mrs. Abby Hunt spent two days the last of the week with Miss Juliette Guy at McIndoe.

Mrs. Richmond from Jenessee, Ill., was at L. R. Varnum's over Sunday. Mrs. Richmond is a descendant of the Varnums and hopes to learn more of the Varnum genealogy.

Miss Emma Butler of New Jersey is visiting her college friend, Miss Annie Williams.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union held their meeting Thursday afternoon in the church parlor. The program was in charge of Mrs. Clara Bailey and the meeting was quite interesting. Mrs. C. J. Clark was present for the first time for a year and spoke of the work in other places.

Miss Dora Clark met with an accident the last of the week. She took hold of a board in the upper part of the barn; it proved to be loose, gave way, and she slid down the hay mow to the barn floor, cutting her face just above one eye on some obstacle in her way.

Mrs. J. N. Sargent has so far recovered that she spent a day with Mrs. Palmer the last of the week.

Mrs. Callie H. Howe, national speaker for the W. C. T. U., will give a lecture in the vestry of the Congregational church Thursday evening, Aug. 3. Mrs. Howe is from St. Joseph, Mo., a very popular and interesting speaker, and it is hoped will have a full house.

How's This?

We offer One Hundred Dollars Reward for any case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure.

F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. We, the undersigned, have known F. J. Cheney for the last 15 years, and believe him perfectly honorable in all business transactions and financially able to carry out any obligations made by him.

WALDO, KINGS & MARVIN, Wholesale Druggists, Toledo, O. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Testimonials sent free. Price 75 cents per bottle. Sold by all druggists.

Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

WHELOCK.

Mrs. Burbank and two children from Toronto, Ont., are visiting her sister, Mrs. L. G. Cree.

Rev. Ora S. Gray of Amherst, Mass., is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. K. Gray.

Miss Laura Stafford, who works at Utica, N. Y., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Will Stafford.

Mrs. Nellie Farr, who has been caring for Mrs. Frank Pearl for the past three months, returned with her husband to their home at Saratoga, N. Y., last week.

Mrs. Ellen Lafcoe and daughter Delia of Newport are staying at their farm here to see to having their hay harvested.

Miss Carrie Mathewson came home from St. Johnsbury last Saturday night to spend a few days with her parents.

Mrs. John Chesley is keeping house for her brother, Frank Pearl.

Valley Lodge, I. O. G. T., will have a public installation of officers next week Wednesday night, Aug. 2.

The ladies union society are having the church painted inside and papered this week.

Free to Butchers.

We are in receipt of a communication from C. S. Page, Hyde Park, Vt., which authorizes us to say to those of our readers who are engaged in the Butchering Business, that if they will send him a postal card with their name and post-office address thereon, and say that they saw this notice in the CALEDONIAN, he will enter their names on his list of customers and send them free, postpaid from time to time as issued, his Hide Bulletin, which give the ups and downs of the market on Beef Hides, Calf Skins, Horse Hides, Tallow, Bones, Cracklings, etc.

Mr. Page has been in the Hide and Skin trade for more than fifty years and has the reputation of being responsible and reliable.

HARDWICK.

W. S. Teachout of Essex Junction was in Hardwick last week and closed a contract with the village trustees for doing the necessary work for the addition to the water system, laying the pipe, building the reservoir and in fact doing the complete job of buying the supplies. He will begin work in a few weeks, and will put on a force of about 25 Italian laborers. They will camp on the job, which will take only about three weeks to complete. A part of the pipe to be used has arrived and has been unloaded.

Fred Gray, of Hardwick, narrowly escaped what might easily have been a serious or fatal accident. He was caught between a stone being handled by the traveling derrick at the Woodbury Granite Co.'s plant and a staging, the stone pressing on his chest and the staging holding his back. So hard was the squeeze that his tongue protruded and his eyes bulged from their sockets. The stone was stayed and pulled away in the nick of time. Mr. Gray's chest is black and blue and his eyes are badly bloodshot, but no more serious results followed.

Bent Her Double.

"I knew no one, for four weeks, when I was sick with typhoid and kidney trouble," writes Mrs. Annie Hunter, of Pittsburg, Pa., "and when I got better, although I had one of the best doctors I could get, I was bent double, and had to rest my hands on my knees when I walked. From this terrible affliction I was rescued by Electric Bitters, which restored my health and strength, and now I can walk as straight as ever. They are simply wonderful." Guaranteed to cure stomach, liver and kidney disorders; at Flint Bros., and F. G. Landry's drug store, price 50c.

WALDEN.

Louis Cheever of Manchester, N. H., visited his sister, Mrs. Davenport, last week.

Mrs. P. N. Kingsbury of Ryegate is visiting her sons here in town.

George Bennett and family of Methuen, Mass., are spending their vacation with his sister, Mrs. Emma Jenson.

Max A. Buzzell of Jericho spent Saturday with his friend Edwin H. Kingsbury.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred H. Rogers of Barre spent last week with his mother, Mrs. Julia Rogers.

Leslie Carpenter has been at home from Cabot for a few days.

A. E. Connell of St. Johnsbury was in town the first of the week on business.

Keep Thinking About It.

Cough syrups that are constipating leave the stomach and bowels in a dangerous condition. A cough syrup that is a laxative is sure to give better results. Laxative is a laxative, and if it fails to cure your cough or cold we will pay back your money. H. B. Gordon, C. C. Bingham, W. H. Egan, C. A. Currier & Co., Guthrie & Peck, McIndoes, A. S. Laughlin, Barnett, C. S. Dole, Danville, J. P. Weeks, No. Danville.

KIRBY.

Mr. and Mrs. David Young from Lyndon spent Sunday at C. C. Walter's.

Mrs. George Ailes does not gain as fast as her many friends would wish and is still confined to the bed.

Mrs. Peter Pendlebury and son Wilbur from Waltham, Mass., are visiting at W. P. Russell's.

Mrs. Lizzie Davis and Dennis visited her son, Arthur, the first of the week.

Mrs. Phoebe Quimby is visiting at Arthur Davis's.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Richard and daughter spent Sunday at W. H. Mitchell's.

BRADFORD.

Captain and Mrs. E. H. Nye returned Saturday from a two weeks visit in Glover.

Mrs. H. B. Wheatley and children are visiting her parents, A. M. Banks and wife.

Chas. P. Dimick of Boston spent Sunday in town.

E. G. Baldwin has been in Morrisville the past week.

R. D. Newton and Dr. W. O. Hutchinson are spending a week at Lake Morey.

Jessie Gates is attending the summer school at Barton.

Mrs. A. H. Webb of Brattleboro is visiting friends in town.

Misses Jessie and Florence Patten of Manchester, N. H., and Miss Mabel Fiske of Fall River are visiting their uncle, Horace Kenfrew.

Charles Farnham and two children of Buffalo are visiting Mrs. Farnham.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Pritchard of Brandon and Mr. and Mrs. Warren Pritchard of Naubua are visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. B. W. Pritchard.

Eckel Johnson of Buffalo is visiting his sister, Mrs. Roswell Farnham.

Miss Eva Hunt entertained a few friends at her home Friday evening very pleasantly.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Peters are visiting relatives at Lake Placid, N. Y.

Mrs. Sarah Richards of Boston is visiting her brother, George R. Andross.

M. J. Corlies of Bethel has been spending his vacation in town.

Mrs. Abbie Gannon of Newtonville, Mass., is spending several weeks in town.

E. G. Osgood and wife and two children are visiting Mrs. Osgood's mother, Mrs. Roswell Farnham.

Mrs. Lucia Peaslee has returned from Yverdon and is at the hotel for the summer.

Miss Elsie Poor of Berlin is visiting Mrs. Lydia Cunningham.

Harry A. Dickey, who graduated from the Ann Arbor Law school last June, is in town visiting his grandmother, Mrs. Asa Dickey.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Walker are entertaining a cousin from Texas.

Mrs. John Sawyer left Saturday for Springfield, Mass., to visit her sister.

Miss Prucia Albee of Nashua is visiting at F. J. Albee's.

Mrs. C. E. Clark and her children are spending two weeks in Post Mills.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Davis left Monday for Waltham after spending their vacation with relatives here.

Mrs. Butts of Arlington, Mass., is spending the summer at F. J. Albee's.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Woods and little daughter of Lebanon are visiting Mrs. Woods' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sawyer.

Miss Blanche Lachance left for Boston Monday to spend her vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Gage of Olean, N. Y., were in town Saturday calling on old friends.

The Diamond Cure.

The latest news from Paris is, that they have discovered a diamond cure for consumption. If you fear consumption or pneumonia, it will, however, be best for you to take that great remedy mentioned by W. T. McGee, of Vanhook, Tenn. "I had a cough for fourteen years. Nothing helped me, until I took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, which gave instant relief, and effected a permanent cure." Unequaled quick cure, for Throat and Lung Troubles. At Flint Bros., and F. G. Landry's drug store; price 50c and $1.00, guaranteed. Trial bottle free.

LUNENBURG.

C. E. Simanton and wife, Mrs. E. B. Howe and Miss Schofield of St. Johnsbury came for supper at the Heights House last Friday in their automobile, returning the same evening.

F. D. Hale and Charles came home Saturday for a short stay.

Miss Cleora Silsby, who has been spending her vacation at home, returned to New York last Wednesday.

Arthur Hartwell and wife are happy over the arrival of a little girl in their home.

Mrs. Benton of Lancaster recently visited her daughter, Mrs. George Balch.

Mrs. Anna Phelps has her sister Mrs. Cheatham, visiting her at this time.

Mrs. J. M. Dodge and her sister, Miss Lillian Blood, spent Saturday in Lancaster.

Mrs. Albert Gray was quite badly injured by falling down the cellar stairs one morning last week. She was fortunate in having no broken bones.

EASTBURKE.

Miss Annie Jock still remains very sick.

Miss Ethel James has gone to St. Johnsbury to study music.

Mrs. Ruby Burpee has been quite sick the past few days.

Mrs. Nellie Hubbard Caswell is visiting her parents here.

Alvah Harvey and his niece, Mrs. Hinda of Newport, called on relatives here Saturday, coming in an automobile.

There were between 30 and 40 at the social at Dr. Root's Thursday and all enjoyed it very much. The committee are about sending for some new books.

Mrs. Wilson and Ethel have returned from their vacation.

Mrs. Webster and Floy Gibson have returned from Willoughby.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Farmer have gone to Albion to visit Mrs. Farmer's parents.

Mrs. Annie Stafford Bailey of Utica, N. Y., is stopping with her parents here.

Rev. Mr. Davenport will speak in the interest of the Anti-Saloon League at the M. B. church, next Sunday evening.

Mrs. Archie Fitzpatrick of Boston is visiting at John McAlley's.

The Willing Workers meet this week with Mrs. Celia Fraser.

The King's Daughters will meet next week Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Clara Parker.

Miss Lucy Jenkins is visiting friends here.

Mr. Adams of Utica, N. Y., is visiting at J. P. Stafford's.

Mrs. Sarah Freeto of Manchester, N. H., is visiting at H. M. Freeto's and R. A. Eggleston's.

Mrs. Mamie Stafford Hamline of St. Johnsbury and children have been spending the past week with relatives here.

Mrs. Olin Stowell and son Clarence of Groveton, N. H., are stopping at Albert Jenkins's.

GROTON.

W. B. Ladd was in Plainfield last week. Ninety-four tickets were sold at this station last week for the circus at Montpelier.

Mrs. Abbie Chapin and daughter Grace of Lowell, Mass., are visiting her brother, J. C. Harvey.

S. C. Carpenter and family and Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Carpenter are camping at Groton Pond.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy E. Speare are visiting her father, Rev. G. W. Clough.

Ernest Clark and mother were in West Topsham Sunday. Miss Ruby Chalmers returned with them.

Mrs. I. N. Hall and daughter Mary are visiting in New Hampshire.

Mrs. Ernest Clark is visiting in Hardwick.

F. P. Smith is falling rapidly.